1. The following information is furnished in response to your request for summary data on the coverage accomplished by the Security Reindoctrination Program.

2. The Security Reindoctrination Program was officially terminated 28 June 1959; however, four special lectures were presented to one [redacted] Office of Logistics printing plant and warehouse employees during August and September 1959. [redacted] of 25X9A2 these employees had completed two years or more of Agency service as of 31 December 1958. 25X9A2

Hdqs. employees on duty two years or more, 31 Dec. 58 - [redacted]

Hdqs. employees attending lectures, Jan. 58 - June 59 - [redacted]

Hdqs. employees attending lectures, Aug. and Sept. 59 - [redacted] 25X9A2

Total headquarters attendance - [redacted]

3. The above figures do not take into account:

a. Attendance of headquarters employees who had less than two years of Agency service as of 31 December 1958.

b. Non-headquarters personnel who attended the lectures.

c. Presentations to high-level officials and other special lectures where participation was not routinely reported.

4. Should there be a decision to reactivate the Security Reindoctrination Program, it is recommended that the procedures for controlling and recording attendance be given careful consideration. This precautionary measure is urged in view of the high incidence of movement of Agency personnel and the fact that attendance at the Security Reindoctrination lectures has not been made an item of record in official personnel folders. 25X1A9a
